

Digital Digesta

Interpretation of Legal Codes and Data Structuring

Venue: Nagoya University, TOIC
8th February 2026 13:00-18:00

13:10 Welcome

13:15-14:00 Takeshi Sasaki

Praedo in Roman Law of Succession: An Analysis of Ulp. 15 ad ed.

14:15-15:00 Julia Hillner

Gender Differentiation and the Death Penalty in Late Roman Criminal Law

15:15-16:00 Tomoyoshi Hayashi

Regulæ in the Digesta Justiniani and Legal Maxims:
beyond the Dichotomy of Abstract Juristic Rules and Concrete Legal Materials

16:15-17:00 Yukiko Kawamoto, Naoya Iwata & Tomoya Sano

From Roman Jurisprudence to Modern Japanese Statutes:
Tracing the Reception of Law via LLMs and Generative AI

17:15-17:45 Discussion (with Jun Ogawa & Shunsuke Kosaka)

17:45-18:00 Closing Remarks Yoshiyuki Suto

*The project is funded by Institutes of Innovation for Future Society, Nagoya University.

Organising Body: Center for Digital Humanities and Social Sciences, Nagoya University.

Contact: yk473@cam.ac.uk (Y. Kawamoto)